Trail Race To Be All-Day Affair

Time Of Covering The Distance To Orchard Camp And Return Is Sole Factor

Since the Mt. Wilson Trail race, planned for an early date, is strictly a Sierra Madre event, the starting point of the race will be in the heart of the down-town business section, the exact location still undecided. In former years a one-way race starting at THE NEWS office has been to the hotel atop Mt. Wilson, but an up-and-back event to Orchard Camp will be in innovation this year.

The Amateur Athletic Union will provide sanction for the race, with the California Athletic Club making necessary arrangements. The event is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and local citizens will act as officials. Robert M. Angier, chairman of long distance and walking division of the A.A.U., has suggested that separate classes be made for men over 50 years of age and possibly one for women over that age.

In a letter to William Burr, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Angier stated a suggestion had been made "that contestants should be allowed to make the trip, say between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m., whenever they arrive, assuming someone will check them out and back, and someone else to 'phone down their passage into and out of Orchard Camp."

A tentative prize list included a team trophy (five-man team); first individual trophy; gold, silver and bronze medals for 2nd, 3rd and 4th places in open class; same for those over 50; and 15 additional bronze medals for finishers.

No entry fee is charged, but A.A.U. cards are required. When distance runs and endurance events are held under the jurisdiction of the A.A.U. it has assured that competitors were all registered amateur athletes, and that the conduct of the event is based on actual experience in dozens of similar ones and will be satisfactory both for the sponsor and the runners.

Publishers Coming To Wistaria Fete On April 7

Advised at its monthly meeting at Covina Friday evening that little specks of lavender are showing in buds on Sierra Madre's great old Wistaria Vine and that the city's annual Wistaria Fete will probably begin about March 25, the San Gabriel Valley Unit of the California Newspaper Publishers' Association voted to hold its April meeting here, under the vine. The unit, comprised of the San Gabriel Valley Press, Pasadena Post, the eastern Los Angeles county line and holds its dinner meetings on the first Friday evening of each month. Its members will gather here on Friday, April 7, by which time the vine is expected to be in full bloom. Invited guests will include metropolitan newspaper publishers and editors from as far north as Santa Barbara and as far south as San Diego.

Map Showing Water Lines Gives Added Fire Protection

Nearing completion by the engineering department at the city hall is a map showing the fire hydrants in Sierra Madre and the water mains leading to them. Long considered an essential part of fire protection, the map shows the exact location of the hydrants, the size of the mains, and the different kinds of hydrant heads.

In case of fire it will be a much easier matter now to ascertain the location of the nearest hydrant and plan accordingly. Much time will be saved for firemen who will know where to pull the hose truck and pumper before they leave the station.

This is the first hydrant map the city has had which shows the location of the mains. The old map did not contain this information and was rather out of date as the city grew in size. Cost of the new map was taken care of through WPA funds.

Music Of Old China To Be Featured At Vine Gardens

Due to alterations in the Pavilion at the Wistaria Vine Gardens in preparation for the opening of the Wistaria Fete, the management announced this week that there will be an interruption in the Sunday night supper programs for this week only. Sunday evening, March 19, the program will be devoted to Chinese music, and will feature many well known Southern California musicians who have spent years in China studying the music of that country and adapting it to western instruments.

PTA Will Sponsor Cub Packs Of The Boy Scouts

To further its activities in supporting character training and parent education groups, the local P. T. A. has voted to sponsor the organization of a Cub Pack under the Boy Scouts of America. A second meeting of parents of prospective cubs was held last night in Room 6 near the Hermosa street entrance of the school. A third meeting will probably be called for the same time and place on March 16. Any boy nine years of age and over, but not yet 12, is eligible for membership.

Former Governor Is Interested In His New Neighbors

A firm believer in the idea that a really good citizen is interested in his community and his neighbors, former Governor Frank F. Merriam stepped into THE NEWS office Monday and entered his name on the subscription list, so as to keep himself well informed of the community happenings and goings and comings of his fellow townsmen.

The Merriams have taken possession of their new home on Mira Monte avenue but it will not be ready for occupancy for some time because of alterations and improvements now in progress. Mrs. Merriam has always been very fond of Sierra Madre and its people and the former governor doesn't think it's a swell place and knows he is going to enjoy the time spent here.

Building Road To Canyon Dam To Haul Away Storm Debris

All week county trucks have been traveling west on Sierra Madre blvd., loaded with dirt from Churchill Road above the little Santa Anita dam. Construction has begun on the road necessary to haul out dirt from the basin behind the dam which was filled with silt and rubbish during the storm of last March. Many truckloads were hauled to the new Safety store now under construction on West Sierra Madre blvd. The dirt is being used to fill in the foundation of the store and also the parking lot, both of which will be concrete. It is estimated that from 75 to 100 loads of dirt will be required for this job alone.

Other truckloads have gone to the W. A. Evans home on West Montecito avenue for filling-in purposes and still others have been dropped on the property of R. S. Corlett at Sierra Madre blvd., and Baldwin avenue.

Rain Arrives To End Long Dry Spell; Wet Weekend Ahead

March did not come in like a lion in Sierra Madre but its meekness has not been entirely typical of a lamb, for Colonel H. B. Hersey stated that the first week of the month has been quite a bit below normal, especially the night temperatures. The average night temperature for the past week was about 41 degrees, while the normal at this time is 46 degrees. Day temperatures were also below normal, Col. Hersey said.

Dark clouds glowering over the mountains heralded the much needed rain that began to fall shortly before 6 o'clock yesterday evening. Two or three storms that have been giving moisture up north are expected here with the prospect that this will be a rainy weekend.

Daily temperature readings for the past week follow:

	High	Low
March 3	58	41
March 4	63	39
March 5	68	40
March 6	72	48
March 7	61	41
March 8	67	43
Total rain for the season	14.99
Normal for the season	20.29

Brothers Confess Flooding Valley With Bad Checks

A clever pair of bogus-check passing brothers were taken into custody early Sunday morning in Pasadena and are awaiting preliminary examination at the Pasadena City Jail. John Martin Notz, one of the men, confessed to passing two phony checks in Sierra Madre on February 10, one at Brock's Market and the other at the Baldwin avenue Safeway Store. He and his brother, Pleny A. Notz, admitted they have passed about 40 bad checks in Sierra Madre, Pasadena, Alhambra, San Gabriel, El Monte and Baldwin Park, where they seem to have made their headquarters.

It was a practice of the pair to cash phony checks drawn on various banks at stores in the locality, purchasing a small amount of wearing apparel or food, and receiving the balance in cash. They worked this racket as far north as Oakland, and south to Anaheim, covering 20 cities. Arrest was made through their car's license number.

Danger Ahead Is Stressed To Women

Sierra Madream's Great Novel Among Others Cited To Indicate Trend

That "Tree of Liberty" by Elizabeth Page, Sierra Madre author, comes very close to being "the great American novel" was the opinion expressed by Gladys Hatley Scoles, prominent book reviewer and current events speaker who appeared before the Sierra Madre Woman's Club Wednesday.

"This book," said Mrs. Scoles, "shows a tremendous amount of research and while there are times when the political events of the time may seem to overshadow the story, there is not an unimportant page in the book. Miss Page has built her story around events subsequent to the Revolution when Alexander Hamilton, one of the privileged group, believed that the American masses were not fit to rule, and that control should be vested in a centralized government. Thomas Jefferson, on the other side, was fighting consistently for State's rights and the liberal system of government."

"Throughout the book one senses that Miss Page wished to convey the idea that the struggle is not over, that it is still necessary to keep the American ideal before us, and that we still have many of the same problems to overcome. It is a very fine book which every one should read carefully."

Another book giving a significant picture of world events which aroused much interest among club members was "Men Must Act," by Lewis Mumford, who expresses in this volume the need for the isolation of Fascism so that American tourists would not be permitted to spend American money in travel through Fascist countries, thereby helping to finance the activities of brutal aggression. Refusal of this country to ship scrap iron to Japan or buy Japanese products; suppression of foreign uniformed organizations, particularly those belonging to the German Bund; deportation of all citizens of other countries who are agitating against this country's government; and the necessity of taking away citizenship from those who use it to cover their allegiance to a foreign power, are other features of the proposed isolation program.

Mr. Mumford's book expresses his belief that force must be met with force which alone can be understood by groups who are using the right of free speech and other liberties in this country to destroy democratic principles. Another current volume, "Nazi Spies in America," by Leon G. Tuman, formerly associated with the F.B.I. who retired from the service in order to write his book, is profoundly important now, when the American people are just awakening to the fact that there is a well organized system of espionage working even in military and government circles, so that news of matters of importance which has transpired at army conferences has reached Berlin before it has reached Washington.

Mr. Tuman states that it is his belief that for every Nazi spy apprehended, there are a dozen who are unknown; that they are in every government department and air plane factory, and that a plan to secure plans for the fortification of the eastern coast through a bold kidnapping were forestalled by the F.B.I.

Other books covering a wide field of biography, fiction and travel were reviewed by Mrs. Scoles following luncheon. During the morning she discussed current events, dealing particularly with the movement of Fascist troops into Libya and Spain; French troops into the Somaliland; and Japanese troops from central into northern China, and the possibilities which these activities portend. She also gave a graphic picture of events now occurring in Europe; the fear of German aggression which is being felt in Holland and the difficult position confronting Hungary just now. June Cairns, mezzo soprano of Monrovia opened and closed the morning session with groups of songs. She was accompanied by Mrs. A. D. Cain at the piano. Mrs. Cain will head the music for the month, it was announced.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN TO CITY IF MOUNTAIN SIDE BURNED OFF? RANGERS TO GIVE ANSWER

Every Resident Urged To Attend Public Meeting Next Wednesday Evening

What would happen to Sierra Madre if there were a severe fire in the foothills above, followed by a heavy rain such as that experienced last March? The answer is obvious, the forest rangers and all well informed citizens believe, and to prevent such a calamity everybody in Sierra Madre is urged to attend a conservation meeting to be held at the grammar school auditorium here at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 15.

City To Hear C Of C Aims At Dinner

Program To Be Explained This Evening As Float Committee Is Honored

Everything is ready for the "kick-off" dinner which will be held tonight at 6:30 p.m. at Wistaria Vine Gardens. The dinner is the first event in a series of activities planned by the Chamber of Commerce for the betterment of Sierra Madre, and will directly honor the 1939 Wistaria Town Float Committee.

Motion pictures of the Rose parade, taken by Joseph Grippi, will be shown as part of the entertainment which will also include musical selections. Long speeches are taboo at the dinner, the program being planned as a get together of local organizations to give a vote of thanks to the float committee for its efforts in continuing to have the city represented in the annual Tournament and bringing home another prize.

The Chamber of Commerce program for the year has as its principal aim, community betterment, and according to William Burr, president, is divided into nine parts:

- 1-Building of new trails and firebreaks and taking of every other possible precaution to protect homes here from forest fires and resulting flood damage.
- 2-Continue to improve inter-urban transportation facilities.
- 3-Maintain a keen interest in the school system, both elementary and high, at all times.
- 4-Assist in city beautification, planning and highway improvement.
- 5-Promote the interest of Sierra Madre business, realizing that the success of local enterprise means increased shopping accommodations and a lower tax load for the community.
- 6-To bring new residents to Sierra Madre by favorable publicity and by continuing to distribute folders through the All-Year Club, by sponsoring the Mt. Wilson trail race, and various other activities.
- 7-Take advantage of the extensive publicity afforded by the Wistaria Fete by holding a downtown community event during the height of the fete with prizes to be given for the best window displays, and in every other possible way contribute to success of the annual Wistaria Fete.
- 8-Maintain a "calendar of Community Events" which will assure every cooperating organization an exclusive date for the holding of public meetings, social and civic affairs.
- 9-Complete a "Handbook of Public Services and Utilities" to be distributed to all residents, particularly to newcomers and to the city's immediate neighbors in Santa Anita Oaks and Rancho Santa Anita.

Sierra Madre came in for $3,558 spent in addition to the city's considerable outlay for removal of flood debris following the March flood last year. Another $202,532 is being spent on the Sierra Madre flood control channel, listed as project 9901 in Mr. Farman's accomplishment report. It is sponsored by the Los Angeles Flood Control District and provides for the reconstruction and improvement of the Sierra Madre Creek channel located at the eastern section of the city from the top of the Sierra Madre Canyon dam to the southern city limits, a distance of 4.400 feet.

Upon completion of the work the channel will have a capacity of about 50,000 cubic feet per second. Over $27,000,000 was paid out on storm drains alone, Mr. Farman's report states.

Mr. Farman reports an excellent record was made by Harvey Steinberger of this city, who supervised building of a tunnel in Glendale with no accidents, and beat the required time for construction by ten per cent. At present Mr. Steinberger is working on the March field army airport now in construction. The runway construction cost was $181,750, with another now being built.

The Boy Scouts here are doing some mighty good work, too, and the basketball and skating at the Congregational Church are interesting a lot of our youngsters. Heaven knows this town needs some activity for its young people and if we don't do anything to provide the right kind we are partly responsible if they take the wrong kind.

Two months after "ole man pepper tree" was consigned to oblivion by way of sharp axes, a slender, new, little tree has taken its place in front of THE NEWS office in Kersting Court.

The tiny little newcomer was planted March 3. It was a gift to the city of Mrs. Jessie Ward Russell of the Ward Nursery. The tree, which is a female and will have red berries, is about ten feet tall. For half an hour or more Miss Thomasella Graham, chairman of the tree planting committee of the city planning commission, worked on the tree, properly straightening and pruning the roots so they will grow in the right direction. It was given a good heavy drink of water and appears to be coming along all right in its new home.

Sierra Madreams are urged to protect the tree, especially from dogs and children. It is hoped that a bed of flowers may be planted in the surrounding plot to brighten up Sierra Madre's business district.

Motorist Held For Reckless Driving After Accident

Suddenly backing his car away from the curb at 62 West Sierra Madre blvd., at a high rate of speed on Sunday afternoon, S. Mori, 401 North Mountain Trail avenue, crashed into a car being driven west by L. B. Williams, 2025 Paloma street, Pasadena. Neither party was injured but the impact threw Mori over the back of the driver's seat, according to witnesses.

Mori was cited to appear before Police Judge Tom Neale this morning on reckless driving charges.

Junior Womn Will Stage Fashion Show March 30

A fashion show in which the Arcadia, Michillinda and Monrovia Junior Woman's clubs will participate has been arranged by the Sierra Madre Juniors. The event will take place Thursday, March 30, with Juniors serving as models. Miss Dorothy Walsworth was named to take charge of the style show.

The Juniors also plan to operate a postcard concession at the Vine Gardens during the Wistaria Fete.

Miss Daisy Vannier has urged the Juniors and all those interested in the work of the Red Cross to register as members of the organization.

An especially interesting feature of the Juniors last meeting was a talk by Mrs. Ruana Lawson, on coordination and rhythms. A sufficient number of Juniors signed up to make two classes which will meet under her supervision, starting Tuesday, March 21, at the clubhouse.

Big Slice Of WPA Money Came Here

Sierra Madream Resigning As Director Handled Huge Expenditures

A Sierra Madream, G. I. Farman, directed the expenditure of $92,311,757 of WPA funds on construction work in southern California during his three and one-half years as director of construction operations. Mr. Farman has resigned his position and submitted a detailed report of projects carried on under his direction.

Sierra Madre came in for $3,558 spent in addition to the city's considerable outlay for removal of flood debris following the March flood last year. Another $202,532 is being spent on the Sierra Madre flood control channel, listed as project 9901 in Mr. Farman's accomplishment report. New Pepper Tree Is Planted In Shopping District

Two months after "ole man pepper tree" was consigned to oblivion by way of sharp axes, a slender, new, little tree has taken its place in front of THE NEWS office in Kersting Court.

District PTA To Meet Here On Monday

Pasadena Council To Hold Interesting Session As Local Group Elects

Monday, March 13, the Sierra Madre Parent-Teacher Association will be hostess to the Pasadena Council of Parents and Teachers. To this, the first open conference of the year, all members of the 31 units under the council, including those in Pasadena, Altadena, Linda Vista, La Canada and Sierra Madre schools are invited.

The meeting opens at 10 in the forenoon, in the school auditorium, corner of North Auburn and West Highland avenues, with Mrs. Lawrence Sutherland, council president, presiding. Timely reports of council activities, of vital interest to all concerned with the welfare of young people, will be presented.

Local school children of Miss Mary Pfahler's music classes will sing a group of "Safety Songs," also the new school song, for the first time publicly. The latter's stirring words were recently composed by Mrs. Yorda Adams, a 5th grade teacher. To further demonstrate school activities to the visitors, some of Miss Florence Lusted's art classes will prepare the flower arrangements for the luncheon tables.

At 11:30 Mrs. Seymour Johnson, third vice-president of the council, will present Miss Esther Requaugh, who will speak on the subject, "The Child of Promise, Not a Problem." Miss Requaugh, a well-known educator from the east, and formerly a teacher in various European countries, is wintering on this coast to assist western parents and teachers.

Sierra Madre members will serve a luncheon in the cafeteria at 1 o'clock, reservations to be made by noon today, at the school office. Whatever profit the lunch committee may make will be used toward the expense of sending a delegate to the annual state convention at Santa Barbara in May.

No other meeting will be held in March provided enough local members attend to constitute a quorum to elect the nominating committee, as required at this time, at a brief business meeting at 2 o'clock.

Elizabeth Pages 'Tree Of Liberty' Soon To Be Filmed

Miss Elizabeth Page's novel, "The Tree of Liberty," recently purchased by Columbia studios, will be produced and directed by Frank Lloyd within the next few months. Elaborate preparations are being made to film the widely discussed story on a spectacular scale, the type of work Lloyd, who made "Mutiny on the Bounty," "Wells Fargo," and "If I Were King," does best.

The book is being widely discussed in literary circles and was the March selection of the Discoverers, in addition to the Literary Guild.

Local Youth Will Be Contender In Big West Coast Debate

Fresh from winning southwestern debate laurels, Raymond Simpson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Simpson, 633 West Laurel avenue, will represent the George Pepperdine College, Los Angeles, at the big event of college debating on the Pacific Coast, March 23 to 25, at Pasadena. The Pi Kappa Delta province convention and tournament will draw more than 500 students and young people from all over the Western area in competition.

The conference question for the debate is, "Resolved, that government shall cease to use public funds for stimulating business." For extempore speaking "Solidarity of the Western Hemisphere" has been selected as the general theme. The conference will be the biggest event ever held in Pasadena. Dr. Ray E. Untereiner, Caltech debate coach, reported.

LODI VISITOR IS FETED ON HER BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McMillen were hosts at a dinner party at their homes last week celebrating the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Elizabeth Bentley, of Lodi, mother of Mrs. McMillen, who is visiting here. A charming bouquet of Chinese Magnolias arranged within a border of pink forget-me-nots from the McMillen garden, lighted with pink and lavender tapers formed a distinctive centerpiece on the table. The pink and lavender theme was also carried out in the ice cream birthday cake attractively decorated in those colors. Those present were Frank Tyler and daughter Mildred of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Illo of Los Angeles; Mrs. Clara Stanfield and son Frank of West Los Angeles, the honoree and hosts.

To the Citizens of Sierra Madre:

Sierra Madre, California
March 1st, 1939

This letter is written without solicitation, and is prompted by my sincere good wishes for Sierra Madre as a community unequalled in which to live.

There is not a vacant store building in Sierra Madre, and there is no doubt in my mind that new store buildings will be necessary if we of Sierra Madre will decide now to purchase everything possible from the merchants of Sierra Madre instead of buying from out of town Merchants.

We have courteous, honest merchants whose prices are just, and all of us derive a pleasing satisfaction in trading with those we know personally.

We are all satisfied with our homes and I believe we can be just as satisfied with our own business district if we patronize it. Let's all give it a try.

Sincerely yours,

T. W. NEALE

Butter Cookies Sparkle for Festivities

DELECTABLE and fragile cookies shaped like the stars of the Milky Way add a sophisticated touch to any festive occasion. As much fun to make as they are to serve, butter cookies solve the problem of the hostess anxious to entertain her guests graciously and economically. Practically all home-made cookies can be developed from a simple basic recipe. Butter gives a distinctive taste and nutritive quality which can be obtained in no other way. The foundation recipe for all butter cookies is given below:

1 1/2 cups flour 1/2 cup granulated sugar
1 tsp. baking powder 1 egg
1/4 tsp. salt 1/2 tsp. vanilla
1/2 cup butter 2 tbsps. milk
Cookies may be shaped in various ways—there are rolled cookies, drop cookies, sliced or ice-box cookies and cookies which are spread in a pan and cut after baking. The flavor may be varied by the addition of chocolate or other flavorings and all sorts of decorations can be applied with nuts or candied fruits to add flavor. The pastry tube can be used to add delicate trimmings. Good cookie makers know that if certain rules are followed they are sure to have a good product. Cream butter thoroughly before adding other ingredients; have ingredients cold and combine them quickly. Chill the dough for at least 1/2 hour before rolling it; work with about 1/4 of the dough at a time and on a cold board with little flour; dip cookie cutter in flour each time before using and deposit cookie on baking sheet. Bake in a fairly hot oven on a lightly buttered baking sheet.

Golden Gate Expo Movies Thrill Kiwanis Club

Sierra Madre Kiwanians who were unable to be in San Francisco on the opening day of the Golden Gate Exposition, February 17, got a taste of what they missed when Dr. Frank Hodgson showed pictures he took on that day, at the Tuesday club meeting. Dr. Hodgson, who was introduced by Dr. Lee Evans, also showed pictures taken around Quebec while on a 10-week vacation trip through Canada. Scenes in the White Mountains were also included. Although Dr. Hodgson is an amateur photographer, those who saw his pictures were very much pleased.

Members were urged to pay the Glendora club a visit today. A delegation will leave the city hall at 11:30 a.m. to personally thank Glendora for its aid to the local club in matters of incorporation.

Exciting Jumping Events And Polo At Riviera Sunday

Peso, Mrs. Vanderbilt Phelps' chestnut gelding, winner of the past two steeplechases at Riviera Country Club, in making a bid for a third successive victory Sunday afternoon in the feature Alexander Pantages race, will run into some stiff competition.

Mrs. Elena Bullock's Severo who went down at the seventh jump last week, hurling gentleman jockey Henry Bowyer to the ground, will be out of the 'chasing for a week or two but there will be others equally as good at the post. Lindum, usually called the state champion, is scheduled to compete Sunday with Hank Foley aboard.

The mile flat race which gave the crowds of filmland celebrities a thrill when Jimmie Gleason's brown mare, Hermacita, threw the jockey twice before Bert Gough could start the race, will again be a feature of Sunday's program. Polo starts at 1:45 and the first steeplechase at 3 o'clock.

Providence Editor Tells His Greatest Disappointment

Having the best story of his career and no chance to use it, was the dilemma which confronted John Forbes, veteran newspaperman and city editor of the Providence Journal, during the disastrous storm on the eastern seaboard last fall. Mr. Forbes speaking before the Sierra Madre Arts Guild at the A. J. Dewey studio Friday told of the disappointment felt by members of the Providence Journal staff over its inability to "cover" the city's greatest news story because seven feet of water engulfed their press room following the hurricane, making it impossible to get out the paper.

Following an informal talk dealing with general newspaper work, a half hour was devoted to questions fired at Mr. Forbes, which brought out many of the fascinating angles of journalism. Harry Eisen, young Pasadena violinist presented by his teacher, Miss Lalla Fagge, gave a group of well known classics. He was accompanied by Miss Marion Auv, also of Pasadena. The exhibit for the evening consisted of recent landscapes by Alfred J. Dewey. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Dewey.

School Children Join In Observance Of Conservation Week Here

Sierra Madre stepped in line with other cities throughout the state in observance of "Conservation Week" which began Monday and officially ends March 14, although M. E. Cyester, assistant forest ranger, Santa Anita Ranger station, stressed the fact that conservation should not be thought of as a practice to be enforced one week or one month but should be observed the entire year. The week beginning March 6 was appropriately selected because Arbor Day, March 7, and Luther Burbank's birthday both fall during this week. In observance of the occasion Governor Culbert L. Olson issued a proclamation designating it "Conservation Week" and urged all Californians to unite in a policy of observing our conservation laws this week and every week throughout the year. At the Sierra Madre grammar school Mrs. Mary Wheeler's 6-A class is making an intensive study of conservation, basing the class work on this important subject. Education in conservation during recent years has contributed profits in forest fire prevention, conservation of soils, and waters, restoration of wildlife and preservation of wilderness areas, but there is yet much to be done. We want people to understand that conservation is not a one-week observance. All through the month of March we are ready to show pictures and give talks to local organizations on this important subject, and above all, it must be remembered that conservation is a year around job," Mr. Cyester declared.

IN GOOD HANDS

There is so much to be done!" were the final words of Pope Pius XI. Had he known his successor was to be Cardinal Pacelli—a man he referred to as "our beloved son"—he would have felt no uncertainty regarding the statesmanship of the Catholic Church in dealing with the great problems confronting it. With a brilliant career as statesman behind him, the new head of the Roman Catholic Church is ably fitted to carry on the tasks of his great predecessor whose name he has adopted. Greatest among those tasks today is that of safeguarding his religion, and indirectly all religions, against the secular tyranny of governments who defy the State and oppose man's right to worship a superior Power. That this high task has been entrusted to hands as capable as those of Pope Pius XII is a happy augury not only for the millions of whom he is spiritual father, but for the millions of all faiths who see that religious liberty is inseparable from political liberty.

A MERCILESS MONSTER

As the struggle in war-weary Spain draws to a close, an anxious world wonders, "What now?" Will persecution of the losers by the victors darken the Spanish earth with more bloodshed? Will the desperate, last-minute efforts of Franco and Britain woo General Franco away from his erstwhile allies, and prevent Germany and Italy from falling heir to the prizes they hoped to pluck from Spain? In war the victors, like the losers, must pay. How will General Franco make good the material rewards he promised his 800,000 Nationalist fighters now that they have virtually won their victory? That he will be forced to make drastic changes in the distribution of land and wealth is the foregone conclusion of competent foreign observers, who point out that this prospect has already disturbed many of Franco's powerful supporters in Spain. If the Nationalists thus win the Loyalists' battle for them, it will only prove again that war is a merciless monster which laughs at the hopes of men and blithely follows its own ironic logic. Spain is a living monument to the tragedies wrought by organized violence. It is likewise a challenge to mankind to redouble its search for ways of resolving disputes through peaceable means.

Case and Comment

By Charles B. Showalter

(Editor's Note: The opinions expressed herein are those of Mr. Showalter and do not necessarily reflect the attitude or opinions of THE NEWS.)

THERE is nothing in American life quite so convincing that the world disorder is approaching bedlam than a survey of the so-called youth movement in the United States. Ten years ago radicalism and revolutionary propaganda made no impression on American youth, but today, aping their elders, they are in the mad scramble to get "something for nothing," to change the old order, "and to plan for support in idleness."

The following are some of the youth organizations, drawing membership from all the colleges and universities and even into the high schools. They have even penetrated the young peoples organizations in many of the churches:

- 1—Young Communist League.
- 2—Youth Section, American League for Peace and Democracy.
- 3—Youth Division, International Workers Order.
- 4—Youth Division, National Negro Congress.
- 5—Workers Alliance.
- 6—American Student Union.
- 7—Young People's Socialist League.
- 8—National Student Federation.

These organizations all inspired and officered by radical Socialists and Communists, vigorously claim to represent all the 20 million youth of the country. They so energetically pressed their claims that the administration created another alphabetical monstrosity—the N.Y.A.—(National Youth Administration) with Mr. Aubrey Williams demagogue and radical socialist wrecker as its guiding light.

An American Youth Act has been proposed, providing for the payment of $15 per week to all youth applicants, and costing, it has been estimated, over 3 billion dollars per year. This would especially serve the Communist purpose of creating a predatory class of millions of young people who could act as a pressure group to exact increasing largess from the State. Mr. Roosevelt has endorsed these movements with open letters to their leaders, and considering his political mind, his motives are self-evident. Mrs. Roosevelt has sponsored the movement and made speeches in their meetings.

History will unquestionably record this as a major blot on the Roosevelt record. There is something cynical in a statesmanship that connives at the corruption of its own youth. To encourage a predatory attitude in the youth of the land is to destroy the last slim hope of democracy. In any other administration the thought that the young who had not yet made any economic contribution to the state could become a pressure group demanding subsidies and immunities would be comic. Youth has always lived on the borrowed capital of its elders. When it begins to organize into political mafias to demand as a right what it has always received as an indulgence, we have a situation poisonous to society and to youth itself.

Solution to the youth problem—if there is one—will not be found in revolutionary action, not in joining pressure groups for subsidies, but in cultivating and building up an attractive and useful life and character. Then the chance will come when it becomes necessary to shoulder the responsibility.

There is nothing that could more profitably engage the mind of youth than laying the foundations of a well-balanced life. Unbalanced thinking, by which we mean failure to weigh and measure both sides of a question with all correlative influences, is responsible for all the quack nostrums and looney movements we have today, in politics, in economics, in healing, in religion.

For example, over emphasis on one phase of the Gospel message, tacitly ignoring the others, and a new cult born with the result that God's message to men is lost in controversy and futility.

We have committed the same error in politics by over-emphasizing the plight of the "ill-fed, ill-housed and ill-clothed," centering our efforts on the amelioration of their condition, to the neglect of the millions who want to work and pay their own way.

It is this crooked thinking plus crookedness in management that has brought us to the brink of national disaster. No one in authority in the Government seems to give a thought to the day of reckoning, but that it must come, and is imminent, is the earnest conviction of the ablest men in both major political parties.

Commendable regulations for the operation of school busses have suggested to the states by the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is urged that drivers be required to open the front side door when stops are made at grade crossings and that the busses be routed so far as possible to avoid grade crossings. The commission points out that 84,061 school busses daily carried more than three million children to and from school.

THE BIGGER BLOW

FLOOD OF RIDICULOUS BILLS IN THE LEGISLATURE WOULD BANKRUPT THE STATE

Editor's Note—Scores of bills are pending before the State Legislature to establish new departments, new bureaus and commissions—new regulatory boards and new governmental services. This is the first of a series of articles by Ralph H. Taylor, farm leader and seasoned legislative observer, analyzing these bills as they affect the taxpayer.

STATE government, probably the only major enterprise in California which expanded steadily throughout the years of depression, seems destined to achieve a new all-time high in bureaucratic development during the next two years—unless the State Legislature cracks down on a veritable flood of pending proposals to create new departments, new regulatory practices and new spending agencies.

Literally hundreds of bills to establish new bureaus and add new governmental functions have poured into the legislative hopper, the majority providing for high-salaried department heads or commissions, many carrying fat appropriations and others providing for huge bond issues to finance their operations.

California citizens are vitally concerned with this threatened mushroom development from two standpoints. First, it is concerned with the problem of increasing expenditures, for unbridled public spending means increased taxation. Second, it is concerned with the problem of excessive governmental regulation.

Some of the bills for new governmental agencies border on the ridiculous; others are exceedingly dangerous. But there are others to establish new social or humanitarian services which doubtless are well-intentioned and might serve a worthwhile purpose. The question which every serious minded citizen, whether farmer or housewife, employer or worker, must consider in connection with these measures, is: "Where shall we call a halt; what services should government perform and what responsibilities should the individual accept as his own?" In short, "What part of our paycheck are we willing to turn over to the State to be spent for us, instead of by us?" For this conclusion rapidly is becoming inescapable that whether government does the job, or we do it, WE PAY FOR IT! If we turn the job over to government, we must, of course, sacrifice a measure of our individual independence to secure a measure of governmental security. And in addition, we must expect to pay the "carrying charges!"

Here are a few of the proposals for new governmental services—the wheat and the chaff together—which the Legislature must pass upon:

A.B. 445, creates an Employment Security Commission of three members at $6000 per year each with power to purchase lands, build homes for the unemployed and their dependents, and to purchase and provide equipment necessary for large-scale farming and manufacturing of products for their use or for other unemployed or for State or Federal agencies. Appropriates $15,000,000 for administration of the act.

A.B. 502, provides for appointment of a Wage Board by the Governor to regulate wages, hours and living conditions of farm workers employed by a producer in connection with a variety of agricultural commodities for which a program of prorated marketing is proposed. Requires payment of time and one-half for all overtime.

A.C.A. 23, creates Public Works Committee, with power to issue bonds up to $500,000,000 (without vote of the people), to finance a public works program to provide work for unemployed, etc.

A.B. 238, establishes State Arborist Board of five members to provide for government examination and certification of arborists. The act does not prevent any person from engaging in arboriculture, but prevents him from using title of "certified arborist" unless properly licensed; fees range from $2.50 to $20 annually for licenses.

A.B. 878, sets up a Labor Education Bureau and appropriates $400,000 to University of California to carry on "Extension Courses for Labor Leaders and Wage Earners." Courses must be "immediately applicable to the immediate practical problems of labor leaders, union organizers, laborers and persons engaged in trades;" labor leaders must be consulted in working out courses. The Marriage Problem

By INEZ HAYNES IRWIN
Author of "Phoebe, Ernest and Cupid," "Happy Years," etc.

The State Will Set by Law the Amount of Her Husband's Salary Due a Wife

IT WILL all be very different a hundred years from now—this matter of marriage. It will not be the poet's or the lover's dream of happiness; on the other hand, it will not be a bugbear.

Of course, the possibility of making permanent the dream of happiness of the poet and the lover has never existed. That happiness has always shown the swiftness and brevity of the lightning flash. For present day conditions it is a mirage, a fata morgana, an ignis fatuus. There is no reason to suppose, whatever the conditions, that we shall ever achieve that kind of happiness permanently, least of all through so complicated, so perplexing, so irritating a human relation as marriage. But another kind of happiness, a permanent one, does exist—that sober serenity which comes from happily occupied heads, hearts, hands.

In a hundred years, perhaps, we shall have learned better than to expect an eternal ecstasy from marriage. At that future time, also, we shall have learned a make both marriage and divorce as easy as possible.

To marry you will have only to go with your partner in the matrimonial scheme to the local city hall and register your intention of becoming married. To divorce you will have only to go to the same place and register your intention of becoming divorced.

In a hundred years from now social progress will have automatically removed certain inevitable bunkers in the matrimonial game.

There are many of these bunkers; money—particularly money for money is not only the root but the trunk, branch, leaf, flower and fruit of all evil; children—for children sometimes push their parents apart instead of holding them together.

A hundred years from now it will be established by law exactly what proportion of his salary the wife, as his partner in the matrimonial undertaking, may demand of her husband.

A hundred years from now it will be established by law exactly what pension the mother—as the partner in population production with the state—may demand of that state for each child she bears.

A hundred years from now society will have changed, or at least modified its attitude toward the woman partner in marriage.

In these times the wife receives what compensation her husband chooses to give her for her services as wife and mother—and that only during good behavior. In these times, the husband keeps for himself whatever share he wants of the family income—and that during good behavior—or bad.

A hundred years from now the wife's share in the family income and a pension from the state being settled by law, the question of her behavior will lie between herself and her God.

Take the matter of economic responsibility of the husband.

Just as a hundred years from now the wife's lot will be lightened, so will the husband's—for much of the financial burden will be taken from the man's shoulders.

The state has come economically to his rescue in pensioning his wife for bearing children. That pension, plus the salary which the law compels him to pay his wife, has turned her from a drudge to a comrade.

There remains only one factor to create unhappiness in the matrimonial situation—the well known human emotion, good old love itself. Love has always made a great deal of trouble and a great many varieties of trouble. No rule governs it. It is capricious personified. It comes. It goes. It appears when it is not wanted. It departs when it is needed. It alights hither and yon.

Only one general statement can be made in regard to it—that, like lightning, it rarely strikes in the same place twice. How are we going to cope with love, nobody knows. It is like weather or static. Nothing can be done about it.

But do we really want to analyze, map, chart, chain, crib, confine it? Only perhaps for the benefit of the love-loan.

Possibly in time science will discover a serum with which the lover, on discovering that the dearly beloved no longer cares for him, can inoculate himself, thereby producing a state of complete indifference. I scarcely expect that as soon as a hundred years, though!

Music hath charms to soothe the savage beast, but is it music if it makes a beast savage? And makes neighbors want to call police and have it suppressed?

A New York youth has just written to Mayor LaGuardia regarding his dilemma in music. He loves to play the saxophone, but when he practices the people next door threaten him with the police. What's he to do? Well, the mayor was too busy to answer a query that lies close to the hearts of many budding virtuosos, but his assistant replied. In his melancholy answer there was small comfort for practicing saxophonists. There is, he found "something about a saxophone that makes the most ordinary people either burst into tears or cheerfully do murder." Even dogs, at the first burst of a saxophone, have been known to break into cries of grief that none could stop. If music hath charms to soothe the savage beast, how will these virtuosos in the raw ever be able to prove they're producing music? There's only one answer. By more practicing—so help us!

The Army is asking Congress for $1000 to be spent on developing a new type of hard tack. One of the Army's spokesmen has admitted the present brand isn't very palatable or digestible. However, our armies marched to victory on it in the last war. With this new and superior hard tack, maybe we can win next time by staying at home and just flexing our muscles at the big bullies across the water!

This week, five months after the Munich settlement of September 28 shifted the balance of power in Europe, Great Britain carries forward her gigantic program of voluntary enrollment. To enlist the country's manpower for active duty on the home front in the event of war, 20,000,000 government handbooks, containing registration forms, are being distributed to that many individuals throughout the nation. In these booklets is a list of the more than fifty special occupations for which workers will be needed if and when the Big Trouble comes. Each person is requested to designate that job which he thinks he is best fitted to fulfill. Reports state that most Britons are finding, after looking over the list of occupations, that they would be most useful to the government at their present jobs. If selective volunteering fails, then selective conscription will be resorted to. At any rate, Great Britain is handling as delicately as she can the ticklish

The way we answer the question "what good is money?" will tell us a lot about ourselves. Is it to be hoarded, to be spent easily, or should we seek to strike a compromise between spending and hoarding? Two Californians have recently given their answers to that query in no uncertain terms. At a "poor farm" in Marin County a former clock-maker died, apparently penniless, and was buried in a pauper's grave. Now it has been discovered that he had saved more than $20,000 and acquired $7500 worth of property, all of which he left behind, having gained from his wealth no pleasure save that of amassing it. That was his answer. Another answer comes from the San Francisco woman who won the $50,000 movie quiz contest the other day. She has promptly decided to build a home for her family with part of the sum, and put the remainder where it will assure her of a regular income. This is another way of answering the query, "What good is money?" It affirms that money is good for acquiring a maximum of happiness with a maximum of security, and is only abused when devoted solely to hoarding or squandering. The woman, by the way, when asked if she objected to giving up the $7,500 the government will take out of her winnings, promptly answered, "Not at all; I thank God I don't live in some of the European countries that would probably have taken all."

Safer Homes Aim Of Class In Hygiene

Holds First Meeting Next Wednesday And Twice Weekly Thereafter

First meeting of the 1939 Red Cross class in home hygiene will be held Wednesday evening, March 15, from 7 to 9 o'clock at the grammar school nurses' room. Thereafter it will meet every Wednesday and Friday at the same time and place.

Registration in the class is limited to 20 members, and although the quota has almost been reached, there is still room for a few more members. Mrs. E. R. Thompson, local chairman on hygiene and nursing, reported.

"We are especially interested in having young women and homemakers join our class," Miss Thompson said. "This year we are stressing that group, and while all women are welcome to join, we feel that the younger mothers who have not had much experience along home hygiene lines will benefit immensely from the course."

Mrs. Augusta Coats is the instructor and the course is free with the exception of textbooks which may be purchased at a nominal cost. Certificates direct from Washington, D.C., are awarded on completion of the course.

Among the subjects offered in the class are how to plan a healthful home, how to handle and care for babies and small children, how to make an ill member of the family comfortable and how to serve competently in common ailments and emergencies. Participation in the promotion and protection of community health is also included in the instruction.

What A Girl Sees Ramblin' 'Round

A GENTLEMAN who has followed horse racing all over the world . . . from Calcutta to Melbourne and Liverpool, in addition to the big tracks in America . . . told us Santa Anita always impressed him more favorably than any other . . . but in his opinion one thing is lacking to make it perfect . . . that is a good band to play before and between races . . . He claims that lively band music adds the final touch to a day at the races . . . and said that Santa Anita is about the only large track that hasn't followed this custom . . . A lot of unmatched license plates are running around the state of Utah . . . They were issued by the State Tax Commission, but the error occurred at the manufacturing plant . . . Ordinarily, such a grave mistake would cause the immediate dismissal of the workmen but in this case errors or no errors the men go doggedly on with their jobs . . . they state penitentiary inmates . . . A city that takes such excellent care of its parks and streets . . . that is so definitely interested in plants and flowers . . . should pay a little more attention to the appearance of its cemetery, we think . . . The Sierra Madre cemetery is a disgrace to the city with its unkempt plots and messy appearance . . . There are some sections that look as if loving hands had tended them, but they just emphasize the other sections that look as though they had been forgotten ages ago . . .

Mrs. Adele Howland and her daughter, Mrs. William McDonald, were no end surprised one Sunday evening about three weeks ago when they sat down at their benches at the Pentecostal church where they are pianist and organist respectively, and found that both their musical instruments were in perfect tune . . . The remarkable part of the story is that the piano and organ are half a century old . . . The pipe organ which Mrs. McDonald plays is the oldest one in Sierra Madre and was formerly used by the Congregational church . . . We read an article on penny collecting the other day that made us ashamed of our extreme haste in passing on the corner coins, particularly after learning that many people would give their teeth for a penny bearing a certain date . . . Stamp collecting is a hobby it seems . . . and the thing to do today is stick pennies in a board which has grooves arranged for coins from 1908 to 1938 . . . We learned that in 1908 and 1909 pennies had a letter "E" on one side and "V.P.D." the initials of the designer, one the other . . .

Mrs. W. J. Lawless, Mrs. Alyce Anderson, Bruce McGill, and Dr. and Mrs. J. FIRE FLAMES

By One of the Boys

A LADY said to the writer, "You fellows must have a good time at your drills and meetings, according to what my husband told me." Her husband visits us occasionally in our "quarters." Of course she was told that we did enjoy meeting and all that goes with it. But here's hoping that her husband didn't tell her everything he sees and hears.

We firemen have been together so long (and that means years) that we do not hesitate to tell one another just about what we think. It often becomes necessary to tell a visitor that he is perfectly safe or that he may be asked to serve as a referee. However when the meetings are over and the table is spread, those two firemen that appeared to be ready to grapple are laughing very heartily over the experience.

To many members that have been in the department for nearly twenty years, its work is more interesting to them now than when they at first entered it. It will be a sad day to some of us when we are forced to retire from active service.

STATE PICNICS

Utah, New Mexico, Nevada and Arizona will hold the annual union picnic reunion all day, Saturday, March 11th in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles. Each state will have its separate section of the park and will open county registers and headquarters.

CARS COLLIDE BUT NO ONE IS INJURED

A collision between two cars at North Lima street and West Grand View avenue shortly after noon Friday resulted in damage to one car but no injuries sustained by the drivers. Miss Ruth Hebblethwaite, 965 East Grand View avenue, driving west on Grand View, collided with Theodore Proctor's car, hitting the rear right fender, after which Miss Hebblethwaite's car careened off into the culvert on the north-west corner of Lima street and West Grand View avenue. The car owned by Mr. Proctor, who lives at 29 North Lima street, was not seriously damaged.

AT PADUA HILLS THEATRE

Anita de la Rosa, Maria Martinez, and Casilda Amador in the fiesta costumes worn in "Joaquin," the current production of Padua Mexican Players.

Four novel auxiliary orchestral instruments, typical of Old Mexico, are employed to accentuate rhythmic features of dances introduced in "Joaquin," a play of the Gulf Coast of the Southern Republic, now being staged at the Padua Hills Theatre.

The quartet includes the bongos, a set of two 10-inch drums stroked and tapped with the fingers; the maracas, a pair of small round gourds loaded with rice and fitted with handles; the claves, two sticks of resonant hard wood that are rapped together; and the guiro, a hollow gourd two feet long, etched with grooves which are scraped with a pick. The delicacy with which they are manipulated to enliven the cadences of the spectacular dances of the Huasteca region introduced in the play is a source of wonder to the visitors, judging by their comments.

Invention Of Local Man Seems Boon To Motorists

A Sierra Madread, Frank E. Price, who manufactured bumpers and other automobile parts in Detroit before coming to California, is seeking to obtain American and foreign patents on his latest invention, which boils down to putting the accelerator lever on the brake pedal. Tests show that use of this device makes it unnecessary to move the right foot back and forth from the accelerator to the brake; stops the car and retards the accelerator simultaneously by a single pressure on the brake, and which is especially important to drivers on long trips, making it possible to safely set the accelerator at any speeds.

Even more important is the fact that frightened motorists will be able to stop quickly in emergencies because all the driver has to do is press a little harder on the brake. Price is an engineering graduate of Michigan State University and is credited with designing the broad-bar bumpers which are now standard equipment, and it is predicted that within a few years either Price's device or one much like it will also be required as standard equipment.

Wind Downs 6,000 Carloads Of State's Bumper Orange Crop

The big wind that came whistling through southern California two weeks ago blew down the equivalent of 6000 freight cars full of Navel oranges.

But there are still some 32,000 freight cars of the golden fruit left, including those in Texas, Florida and Arizona, and growers in the citrus belt are right up against the problem of selling the huge crop. And even if they find a way to do that, they will still have bumper crops of grapefruit, lemons and limes to dispose of before they can ring down the curtain on a successful 1938-39 crop season.

OBITUARY

JOSEPHINE McCARRON

Josephine McCarron, 88 Auburn avenue, passed away at her home Saturday. She was born in Detroit, Mich., 60 years ago and came to California in 1914. She had lived in Sierra Madre for 18 years. Mrs. McCarron is survived by her husband, William; five sons, Neal and James, Sierra Madre; Lewis, Barstow; William and Laurence, of Tucson, Ariz.; one brother, Lawrence Ryan, of Detroit; and six grandchildren. Rosary was at Grant Chapel, 8 o'clock Monday, and mass was said at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Rita's Shrine. Interment was in Calvary cemetery.

ALASON PHELPS

The Masonic ritual of commitment will be conducted at San Gabriel cemetery this afternoon for Alanson Phelps, 56 years a Mason, who passed away at his home, 718 Brookside Lane, Wednesday. Mr. Phelps lived in the same residence in the canyon for 19 years, the number of years he had been in Sierra Madre. Born in St. Lawrence county, New York, 78 years ago, Mr. Phelps lived in California for 39 years.

He was a wholesale salesman for a drug company during his younger days and was always very much interested in mining. During the Alaskan gold rush in 1898 he spent two and a half years prospecting the hard way—cutting down trees to make a cabin—and pioneering generally. For the past 19 years Mr. Phelps continued his prospecting hobby in the mountains around the city and at Big Bear Valley.

The deceased is survived by his wife, Ella; a brother, Ward Phelps, St. Lawrence county, New York; and three nephews.

Following funeral services at 2:30 today at Grant Chapel, with Rev. Augustus Prichard, Pasadena, officiating, the Masons will conclude services at the grave.

Longer Residence Demanded For Relief Clients

Thomas W. McManus, secretary of the California Citizens' Association, this week called upon California's legislators to raise the residence requirement for relief eligibility to three years as a step toward a solution of a critical migration problem.

Pointing to State Relief Administration figures showing that one-fourth of the people on relief have lived in California less than three years, McManus said the remedy for this "intolerable situation" lies within the legislative power of the state.

The imposition of a three-year residence requirement would tend to act as a barrier to those indigent and near-indigent citizens of other states who now come to California determined to eke out an existence for the one year necessary to obtain the higher standard relief benefits that California has provided her citizens," he said.

In a letter sent all members of the Legislature, the association also recommended the barring of aliens from relief rolls.

Fete Arouses Unusual Interest

Hundreds Of Inquiries Pour In From Tourists Bound For Golden Gate Expo

Fame of Sierra Madre's Wistaria Fete has reached foreign shores and brought many inquiries in recent weeks. A letter was received yesterday from F.
Hulse, prominent industrialist, and president of F. Hulse and Co., Ltd., Woodlford, year Leeds, England, stating that he intends to visit southern California this spring and asked information about the Fete which he said he expected to attend. Hundreds of communications and queries concerning the event have been received at the Wistaria Vine Gardens.

Many tourists coming through Southern California en route to the San Francisco fair have already paid visits to the world famed vine, although it is not expected to be in bloom until the latter part of the month. Many reported that they expected to return to Sierra Madre next month to attend the fete.

As one of the preparations for the fete, a spacious outdoor stairway leading to the lookout above the gardens, was completed this week. The look-out has always been popular with visiting tourists, who, from the vantage point, may view the entire San Gabriel Valley and the distant ocean, as well as an excellent view of the Santa Anita track.
The new stair-way provides convenient access to the lookout for the throngs expected to attend the fete.

ROSE BUSHES 70 YEARS OLD STILL BLOOMING

Roses of Castile, brought from Spain more than seventy years ago, are still blooming in the garden of the Slaughter Ranch near China, which is part of the original Spanish grant known as the China Rancho, according to Mr. and Mrs. Lester K. Layton, of Sturtevant drive, who were guests at the ranch last Sunday, accompanied by Mr. Layton's aunt, Miss Belle Marsh, of Chino.
Recently the original adobe walls of the ranch house were covered with siding for protection, but the old landmark still holds much that is historically interesting, including the wagon in which Tubercio Vasquez, early California bandit, was conveyed to prison following his capture after many years of eluding posses which sought to arrest him, and an old rosewood piano, one of the few still extant which were brought around the horn on old sailing vessels.

dented.

geles county, is in charge of ar-

Ball which will be given tomorrow evening under the auspices of the club in the fiesta room of the a benefit for the Los Angeles Sanatorium at Duarte. Mrs. Solnit will be hostess for the evening.

Outstanding event of the evening will be the choosing of "Queen Esther" from a group of "Princesses" who will be sponsored by organizations in the county. Judges will be prominent members of the motion picture colony and the coronation ceremony will be performed by Harry Belous, associate of Cecil B.
De Mille. The young woman chosen will be awarded a valuable wardrobe and a screen test and will receive national publicity through Jewish organizations.

Miss Dorothy Levinson, attractive daughter of Mrs. Robert Levinson of 187 North Sunnyside

San Gabriel Valley League. Other awards will be given to the most popular "Princess" of the evening

THREE BIG EVENTS FOR FLOWER LOVERS

Of interest to flower lovers, artists, and students of flower arrangement in this area is notice of a series of three flower arrangement shows to be staged at the House and Garden, 921 Fair Oaks avenue, South Pasadena.
The series will open with the annual Flower Arrangement Show March 16-18. This will be followed by the "Show of Harmonies," April 26-29, and the "Show of Plastics," May 24-27.

Notes From The Grammar School

Seventh graders at our school were entertained by a talking movie in the auditorium on March 3 by the De Vey Corporation. One was a cowboy picture called the "Spirit of the Plains," and the other was "Sports on Parade."
—Marion Carleton.

Mrs. Wheeler, teacher of the 5A and 6A grades, has a very nice garden shaped in a semi-circle and has a bird bath. Some of the flowers are snapdragons and nasturtiums. She also has a succulent gardens.
—Goodrich Simmons.

Pasadena Symphony orchestra came to play some Irish tunes Tuesday, March 7. They were here to play some tunes for us not so long ago and we enjoyed it very much.

In Miss Lusted's art class the girls are studying dress designing and hair style.

Seventh grade boys, both the 71 and 72, have organized three baseball teams, the Lions, Gorillas and the Tigers. The Tigers were leading in the last game in the first three innings but the Gorillas passed them to win. The score was 23-14.

There will be another game today, the Lions against the Gorillas. William Simmons is captain of the Gorillas and Earl Casta of the Tigers. They haven't chosen a captain for the Lions yet.

This is our baseball cheer song:
Sierra Madre, school of my childhood.
Beneath your sycamore, I would linger for ever more,
Close to the mountains, blue skies above you,
Sierra Madre school, you know that I love you.

Best Waltzers Will Win Prizes At Woman's Club Dance

Much interest is being shown in the St. Patrick's Day benefit dance and card party which is to be given Saturday evening, March 18, at the Woman's Club. Good music for the occasion has been assured through the engagement of a noted all-girl orchestra, known as the "Sweethearts of Melody" for the evening. This group appears regularly at the Los Angeles Breakfast Club and similar groups throughout the Southland. There will also be a prize waltz which will be judged by Mr. and Mrs. William Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. John Spelstra, and Mr. and Mrs.
Emile Smith. Door prizes will be awarded and there will be attractive favors for souvenirs.

Committees announced this week include Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sand-age, who will be in charge of tickets and Mrs. C. J. James who will be in charge of the card games. Mrs. L. S. Godolphin is general chairman for the affair.

ing Tuesday, St. Rita's Altar Society decided to sponsor a candy

Arcadia Dolling Up For Fair Visitors; Humphries At Work

In the hope that in a few years the town will be a mass of beautiful pink blossoms at this time of the year and that it will be able to advertise the community as the "city of flowering trees," Arcadia is in the midst of a tree planting campaign. Its slogan is "Plant a flowering peach tree now."

Every householder has been asked to plant one or more of the flowering beauties and the city promises to join in with plantings in the parkways of several of the principal thoroughfares. Hundreds of trees have been planted during the last ten days and the campaign promises to be a huge success. The city is also going in for parkway plantings of petunias so as to make the community attractive to tourists coming west to the Golden Gate Exposition.
Arcadia went in for this form of beautification in a big way for visitors to the Olympic games in 1932 and feels it was well repaid for its efforts. Credit for this years' effort is given W. R. Humphries, former Sierra Madre resident and booster who is now president of the Arcadia Chamber of Commerce.

YOUR HOME AND MINE

BY ANNE WILSON

Left-overs needn't be the end—they may be interesting beginnings! Left-over chicken or roasts may turn into savory dishes when you use your imagination, as in this delectable combination:

Curried Peas and Chicken
Heat 4 tbsp. butter, add 6 tbsp. flour, salt, pepper and 1 to 2 tsp. curry powder. Add 3 cups meat stock gradually and cook slowly, stirring constantly, until thick. (If you have an electric range, cook this in an ordinary pan on low heat.) Add a No. 2 can peas and 2 cups chicken or other meat. Serve on sections of freshly baked crisp brown waffles. The waffles make this dish even more interesting. They are a pleasant variety from the usual toast background for creamed dishes. Here is another recipe using them:

Chicken Waffle Short Cake
Combine 3 cups gravy or cream sauce with 1½ cups chicken or other diced left-over meat, ½ cup mushrooms sautéed in butter and one No. 2 can peas. Heat to serving temperature and serve on waffle sections. Try creamed tuna with peas and pimientos, served on crisp waffles. It is another combination which will arouse new interest when waffles give it a delicious new foundation.

Former Governor Is Interested In His New Neighbors

A firm believer in the idea that a really good citizen is interested in his community and his neighbors, former Governor Frank F. Merriam stepped into THE NEWS office Monday and entered his name on the subscription list, so as to keep himself well informed of the community happenings and goings and comings of his fellow townsmen.

The Merriams have taken possession of their new home on Mira Monte avenue but it will not be ready for occupancy for some time because of alterations and improvements now in progress. Mrs. Merriam has always been very fond of Sierra Madre and its people and the former governor thinks it's a swell place and knows he is going to enjoy the time spent here.

To the Citizens of Sierra Madre:

Sierra Madre, California
March 1st, 1939

This letter is written without solicitation, and is prompted by my sincere good wishes for Sierra Madre as a community unequalled in which to live.

There is not a vacant store building in Sierra Madre, and there is no doubt in my mind that new store buildings will be necessary if we of Sierra Madre will decide now to purchase everything possible from the merchants of Sierra Madre instead of buying from out of town Merchants.

We have courteous, honest merchants whose prices are just, and all of us derive a pleasing satisfaction in trading with those we know personally.

We are all satisfied with our homes and I believe we can be just as satisfied with our own business district if we patronize it. Let's all give it a try.

Sincerely yours,

T. W. NEALE

Extraordinary Offer! DISHWASHER

GIVEN WITH PURCHASE OF QUALIFIED GAS WATER HEATER

Think of it! You get a new automatic gas water heater ...and a marvelous dishwasher at no extra cost!

That means fast, easy dishwashing plus plenty of hot water for everything. With an automatic gas water heater of adequate size, there'll be plenty for the laundry and other household uses—no more wondering whether the bath water will run cold—no waiting at any time.

Act today! This valuable combination offer is for a limited time only. See a merchant plumber, dealer or your gas company. Ask about the liberal terms.

What the Sprayfoam Dishwasher does for you...

Saves time! Dishes are washed much faster and require no wiping.

Washes cleaner! Fresh, sudsy water is provided for each dish, at a higher temperature than is possible when you wash by hand. Greases and foods dissolve more completely.

Protects hands! No need to put your hands into a dishpan, or to expose them to soapy, greasy water.

Lightens work! Cleansing streams of water combined with a special circular brush make the job far simpler and pleasanter.

COMPLETE SPRAYFOAM UNIT (shown above)—includes chromium plated dishwasher; baskets for dishes and silver, with adjustable rack; hoses, nozzle and circular brush—nothing further needed but hot water and soap! Regularly sells for $19.50—included without cost when you buy a water heater selling for $60 or more in the 30 gallon size.

Other water-heater models, too, are eligible for this offer—get full information from a merchant plumber, dealer or your gas company.
